Article 1.2.2.3.

Certifying veterinarians

Certifying veterinarians should:

1. be authorised by the Veterinary Administration of the exporting country to sign international veterinary certificates;
2. only certify matters that are within their own knowledge at the time of signing the certificate, or that have been separately attested by another competent party;
3. sign only at the appropriate time certificates that have been completed fully and correctly; where a certificate is signed on the basis of supporting documentation, the certifying veterinarian should be in possession of that documentation before signing;
4. have no conflict of interest in the commercial aspects of the animals or animal products being certified and be independent from the commercial parties.
